

Client: SCHOENI ART GALLERY

Date: NOV / DEC 1995

Publication: ASIA ART NEWS

Circulation: 4,500

Kuang is a new participant at Art Asia '95. His distinctive and sensitive depiction of women have won global acclaim. Most recently the artist's work, commissioned by the World Federation of United Nations Associations (WFUNA), graced the commemorative postage stamps, first day covers, and limited edition prints for the Fourth World Conference on Women.

East-West Fine Art, San Francisco, is exhibiting abstract oils by Shan Shansheng, the Chinese artist whose works were a sell-out at Art Asia '94. Recently, her work was on show in the Forbidden City, Beijing, as part of a special exhibition for the Fourth World Conference on Women.

For the first time, Art Asia will feature Indonesian art. The Neka Museum of Ubud, Bali, recognized as one of the leading authorities on Indonesian art in the country, will exhibit paintings by Made, Indonesia's most promising young modern artist.

Three major works by avant-garde Korean artist Nam June Paik, famed for his sensational television and laser-disc player sculptures and installations, will exhibit with Galerie Bhak, Seoul. The gallery will also exhibit works by Bong Tae Kim and Hyung-Jae Youn. Following the success of his debut at Art Trends, Kyu Nam Han of the East-West Institute of Art, Seoul, Korea, will be at Art Asia '95. His theme, A Synthesis of Opposites, is expressed in a series of paintings on Korean mulberry paper, canvas, and multi-colored screen paintings.

From Vietnam, the realist painter Do Quang Em will be visiting the Territory for the first time. Em is represented by Hong Kong-based Vietnamese art experts, Galerie La Vong, which will also feature paintings by Tran Trung Tin and Nguyen Thanh Binh. From New York and Tokyo, Westwood Gallery will bring to Hong Kong exquisite landscapes and nature scenes by Kei Shibusawa, one of Japan's most sought-after painters.

Plum Blossoms, Hong Kong, is hosting an exhibition of works by Chinese artists: Nie Ou, Wang Dawen, Wei Dong, and Zhu Wei, alongside the highly acclaimed Vietnamese artist Le Thiet Cong.

Young artists from Sichuan, China, Mou Huan and Wang Ying, will exhibit their works in Hong Kong for the first time at Art Asia '95. In addition, paintings by popular local artist Chu Hung, represented by City Gallery, and Kar Yeung, represented by Bauhinia Post Modern Arts, will also be exhibited.

...

HONG KONG

Art Asia 95

More Asian artists than ever before will come to Hong Kong to participate in Art Asia, November 16-20, 1995, reflecting the regional popularity rise of the show. Marlborough, one of the world's largest and most renowned galleries, has just announced its exclusive worldwide representation of Chen Yifei, perhaps the most prominent contemporary Chinese painter. The gallery is showing eight new paintings by Chen at Art Asia '95. Collectors and admirers of the artist's work will be pleased to hear that the artist will personally attend the fair.

Schoeni Art Gallery, one of Hong Kong's leading champions of contemporary Chinese art, is showcasing Jiang Guofang's evocative, classical works. The ornate architecture and history of the Forbidden City is the theme of many of the artist's oil paintings. Jiang Guofang will visit Hong Kong to introduce his latest works.

From the United States, Shanxi-born artist Ting Shao

19th Floor, Si

NY

2566 1311 Fax : 2510 8199